CSIR-INTEGRATED SKILL INITIATIVES PROGRAMME ON

PLANT TISSUE CULTURE TECHNICIAN

Objectives

The Plant Tissue Culture Technician program, certified by the Agriculture Skill Council of India (ASCI), a unit of the National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC) in India, is to provide technical training in Plant Tissue Culture (PTC) to unemployed youth, particularly those who have completed their 12th grade education. The program aims to equip them with the knowledge and skills required to work in the field of PTC, either in PTC industries or laboratories, enabling them to replicate established protocols.
